Dear Applicants, OYCF Members, and Friends:

It is our great pleasure to announce the winners of the OYCF Teaching Fellowships for the academic year 2009-10. This year, we received a competitive pool of high quality applications from established professors, professionals, researchers, and Ph.D. students. We appreciate very much the applicants' strong dedication to teaching in China, and their time and effort in supporting the OYCF teaching program. We were very much impressed by the applicants' careful preparations and well-crafted proposals.

We are also grateful to our anonymous referees for reviewing and evaluating the applications. Their careful reviews and insightful comments have greatly benefited our Teaching Fellowship selection process. Based on the expert referees' opinions, fourteen (14) OYCF Teaching Fellowships, including eight (8) OYCF-Gregory C. and Paula K. Chow Teaching Fellowships and six (6) OYCF-Ford Teaching Fellowships, are awarded to the following applicants (in alphabetical order).
